

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DONELL HAYNIE,

Plaintiff,

v.

E. LILJOHN, ET AL.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 1:20-cv-00457 JLT BAK

ORDER RE PENDING RECUSAL

This matter was reassigned recently to the undersigned. The undersigned conducted a settlement conference in this case in the past, during which confidential information was imparted. Consequently, the undersigned intends to recuse from this case, unless the parties waive the disqualification via a written stipulation. Therefore, the Court ORDERS:

1. If they wish to waive the disqualification, they must file a waiver no later than January 31, 2022.

///

///

///

///

///

1 2. If the parties choose not to waive the disqualification¹, they need not take any action
2 and the Court will issue a recusal order after January 31, 2022.

3
4 IT IS SO ORDERED.

5 Dated: January 11, 2022

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

¹ Absolutely no adverse consequences will result no matter how the parties decide to proceed.